TOUR d' TEMPLE

Spectators at the Tour d' Temple

More news on the Tour... The committee decided to get feedback from riders on how they would rate the Tour, and what we could do to improve the ride. Penny send a survey to those who pre-registered on line and 19 have responded so far. Most were very complimentary and said they enjoyed the event. They really liked the food available post-ride. There were some concerns about the condition of parts of the route, but we made the best changes we could based on flooding and washed out sections. The good news—all but one respondent will ride again! Many folks to THANK when we get info together.
